

Are You Listening to God?

“Dear God, Help Me Control My Thoughts.”

Jeremiah 17:5-10

_____ is divided into two groups of people.

One group is those who put all their trust in

_____.

Jeremiah 17:5

These people have two distinct _____.

- They believe the answer to all of life's issues is found in _____ and his _____.

Romans 8:7-8

- They have _____ that are against _____.

The _____ of life is _____ from those who trust in man.

Jeremiah 17:6

The other group is those who choose to _____ in _____.

Jeremiah 17:7

Those who choose to live by faith are _____ with a stream of blessings that keeps them from _____ under the intense heat.

Jeremiah 17:8

Trusting in God brings _____ even when _____ doesn't make sense.

Psalm 40:4-5

Those who live by faith are _____ even during the hard times.

Galatians 2:20

There is one inherent _____ with this type of teaching.

All of our hearts are affected by our _____ so that we don't _____ right.

Jeremiah 17:9

In order to begin to live by faith, we must have our minds set on the _____ – but how can we know what the right path is?

Being put on the right path begins with an acknowledgment that I'm on the _____ path.

Romans 1:28

I must also _____ to be _____ on the right path.

Psalm 16:11

Choosing the path of trusting God, gives me a good _____ before my _____.

Jeremiah 17:10

Meditating on God's Word allows my _____ to be put on the right path of proper _____.

The mind and the heart are _____.

Luke 6:45

Meditating on Scripture that addresses a particular sin area helps you _____ that sinful thinking with _____ living.

Ephesians 4:22-24

Meditation on Scripture is simply _____ that passage and allowing your _____ to take you into that setting.

Example: Matthew 9:18-25

_____ when a person can meditate on Scripture.

Carve out a special _____ for meditating on a particular text of Scripture.

_____/_____ job.

Doing _____

Not during the _____