

Thanksgiving is an Attitude, Not Just a Day.

HEBREWS 12:18-29

The author of Hebrews teaches us through the use of _____.

The giving of the Law on Mount Sinai was very _____ and _____.

Exodus 19 reveals the _____ God.

Exodus 19:12

Exodus 19:22

Exodus 20 reveals the _____ of the _____.

Exodus 20:18

Exodus 20:19

Even _____ was afraid of God's awesome power.

Hebrews 12:21

Deuteronomy 9:19

Our text reveals 7 traits of Old Testament _____

Hebrews 12:18-19

1. A mountain that cannot be _____
2. A mountain _____ with _____
3. A mountain of _____
4. A mountain of _____
5. A mountain of _____
6. A mountain with the _____ of a _____
7. A mountain with the _____

The New Testament giving of _____ on Mount Zion is _____ and _____.

Our text now reveals 7 traits of the New Testament _____

Hebrews 12:22

1. The _____ Jerusalem, the _____ of the living God
 2. Thousands upon thousands of _____ in joyful assembly
- Revelation 5:11-12
3. The church of the _____, whose names are written in heaven

Hebrews 12:23

1 Chronicles 5:1

4. God, the _____ of all people
5. The spirits of righteous men made _____

Hebrews 10:14

6. Jesus, the _____ of the new covenant

Hebrews 8:6

7. the sprinkled _____ that speaks better than the blood of _____

Abel's blood cries out for _____ – justice.

Genesis 4:10-11

Jesus' blood cries out for _____ and _____

_____ – grace

Ephesians 2:13

Having contrasted the _____ and the _____, the author moves to another contrast of the same kind.

There are dire consequences for not listening to the _____ that _____.

Hebrews 12:25

The Old Testament Jews _____ for refusing to _____ to God speak from Mount Sinai.

Exodus 32:9-10

Exodus 33:3

It is even more important to listen to _____ as he speaks from _____.

Hebrews 2:1-2

Hebrews 1:1-2

The kingdoms of the earth were shaken at Christ's _____ and will be shaken again at his _____ coming.

Hebrews 12:28

Haggai 2:6-7

Haggai 2:21-22

Refusal to accept God's _____ and _____ leaves a person under the God of Mt. Sinai and His _____ awesomeness.

Hebrews 12:29

The attitude of the Christian should be an _____ for the privilege of boldly approaching the unapproachable God on His throne of _____.

Hebrews 4:16