

Great Relationships Come From Living Responsibly

1 John 3:7-15

Don't be _____. You are what you do.

Righteous _____ are very important.

1 John 3:7

Unrighteous habits indicate a _____ heart.

1 John 3:8a

Practice = to _____, to _____ or to carry out. When repeated, these practices become _____.

John 13:27

Real Christians are responsible people who make a habit of _____.

_____ made it possible for _____ to live responsibly.

1 John 3:8; Colossians 2:15; Romans 8:37

Responsible Christians work hard at _____ habits.

1 John 3:9

Bearing _____ and _____ must be dealt with radically.

1 John 3:10; Hebrews 12:15

_____ is John's example of sinful living.

Cain did what he did because he belonged to _____.

1 John 3:12

Cain's actions came from the _____ already _____ him.

1 John 3:12; Matthew 15:19

The story of Cain and Abel models the _____ and the _____.

1 John 3:13

Real Christians _____.

1 John 3:14

A genuine, robust love for other Christians distinguishes the _____ believer from the _____ believer.

1 Peter 1:22

Conversely, a worldly approach toward other Christians indicates an _____ heart.

1 John 3:14-15

While all Christians have been given _____ in _____, we must never use our liberty irresponsibly:

1. By causing a _____ brother to _____ spiritually.

1 Corinthians 8:9

2. By _____ from our brother.

1 John 3:17

3. By treating our brother in a _____ manner.

Matthew 5:22

4. By refusing to _____.

Matthew 18:34-35

5. By going to _____ against a brother.

1 Corinthians 6:7-8

6. By having a _____ toward your brother.

Romans 14:10