

Key Elements of Great Relationships

Right Goals Lead to Great Relationships

1 John 3:1-6

True _____ have a very _____ goal for their lives.

1. The believer's goal is understood by _____ what God did.

1 John 3:1a; 1 John 4:10

An _____ ought to remind us of the Old Testament offering.

Leviticus 5:18

Jesus Christ is the ultimate _____ sacrifice which _____ the Father's just demands.

1 Peter 1:18-19; Isaiah 53:10

2. As a result of God's great _____ of _____ on us, we are children of God.

1 John 3:1

Our _____ as _____ to our Heavenly Father is all God's doing.

John 1:12-13; Romans 8:15

We have _____ in our standing since our _____ depends completely upon God.

Ephesians 1:4-5

The line of demarcation must never be blurred by _____ or _____.

1 John 3:1

Our distinction from the world is the direct result of the unbeliever not _____.

3. There must be an understanding of what we will be:

1 John 3:2; 2 Corinthians 3:18; Romans 8:29

To be _____ is the only real goal of the believer's life; everything else flows from this.

2 Corinthians 5:9

_____ is a vital part of the believer's life.

4. Reaching the goal of _____ to _____ is dependent upon what we do.

1 John 3:3

Our "hope" is our _____ of our being with Christ when he _____.

Titus 2:13

_____ from sin is accomplished by _____ righteousness.

1 John 2:28

The unbeliever's behavior is due to _____ the Father.

They are sinners and therefore they _____ sinning.

To practice _____ sin without a desire to _____ may indicate that this person is not born of God.

1 John 3:4

To _____ of sinning is to reveal a _____ that has been given over and may indicate that this person is not born of God.

Romans 1:28

They do not know that Christ did come to _____ sin.

1 John 3:5

Only in Christ does a person have the power to _____.

Jesus Christ committed no sin and therefore gives the world a _____ to _____ for.

1 Peter 2:22

They cannot be in Christ since they continue to _____.

1 John 3:6

They do _____ to _____.

1 John 3:6

This indicates _____, _____ activity.

Only a life born of God is _____ with the Spirit of God (the anointing) and _____ purity and the image of Christ.