

People Have Hurts – Show Them Empathy

Acts 20:30-31

Responding _____ to the hurts people have means we:

Acknowledge the _____ they are facing.

➤ Paul stated this to the other _____:

Acts 20:29-30

➤ Jesus told _____ this:

Luke 22:31-32

Address the sins of hurting people _____ and _____.

Empathy means to put your self in the place of the other person and _____ their _____.

_____ example:

Philippians 3:18-19

_____ example:

Luke 7:38-39

The Greek word _____ teaches us about empathetic _____.

_____ them:

Acts 20:31; 1 Corinthians 4:14-15

_____ them:

Colossians 1:28-29; Colossians 3:16 NIV

_____ them:

Romans 15:14

To truly help the hurting, we must give them _____ and show them empathy by _____ for them and with them over the effects of sin.

The curse of sin is _____ for man because it leads to:

1. The _____ of loved ones on earth.

Acts 20:36-38

2. People believing _____ about God.

Acts 20:29-30

3. Being _____ and _____ for speaking the truth about God.

Acts 20:19

God is not a God far away but _____ and _____ with us.

God knows your _____ and _____ for you.

Hebrews 7:25; Romans 8:26 NIV

_____ want to know your hurts and share _____ love with you.

Hebrews 3:12-13

Christians ought to be people who have _____ God's _____.

2 Corinthians 1:3-4

The major outward difference between the Christian and the lost person is their _____ to life's _____.

Romans 5:5

The hope that we offer the hurting must be from a _____ that can relate to the experience of the hurting and then _____ about it.

James 2:15-16