

Upright Living Means Having a Great Connection with God and Others

James 5:17-20

_____ Christians can connect with God.

_____ is an example of how to connect with God.
James 5:17

He was a man with _____ and _____ like us.
Acts 14:15

Elijah was a man who knew that God _____ prayers.

1 Kings 17:1; 1 Kings 18:1

The purpose of Elijah's prayers was the _____ of the people of _____.

God used Elijah to bring _____ on the land.
Luke 4:25

The _____ was used by God to prepare the hearts of the people for _____.

1 Kings 18:39

When the people had _____, he prayed for _____.

James 5:18; 1 Kings 18:44-45

Ordinary Christians have a _____.

Sometimes _____ wander from the truth.

James 5:19a

Sometimes these professed believers who wander away from the truth are not really _____.

1 Peter 2:25; 1 Timothy 6:10

Sometimes professed believers are drawn away into _____.

Matthew 24:4-5; Hebrews 2:1

Every Believer should be _____ in the _____ of other believers.

James 5:19

_____ accountability keeps one from wandering away.

Ecclesiastes 4:12

_____ is an act of _____ toward the one who has strayed from the truth.

Ephesians 4:15; Galatians 6:1

The _____ of the wandering believer means he or she is saved from _____.

James 5:20a

This death could mean actual _____.
Acts 5:1-11 – _____ and _____

John 8:21, 24

This death may actually mean _____ death.

Jude 22-23

If the professed believer does not _____ in his _____, he will die eternally.

Luke 8:15; Hebrews 10:36

If the professed believer has only a _____ salvation instead of a _____ salvation, he will die eternally.

Matthew 7:21, 23; Proverbs 14:12

The wandering sinner has an _____ or _____ conscience which is an indication of being dead spiritually.

1 Timothy 4:1-2; Hebrews 10:21-22

The wandering sinner who is _____ from wandering will find _____.

James 5:20b

_____ will be repented of and covered.
Proverbs 10:12; 1 Peter 4:8

When repentance occurs, _____ are abated: covered by a righteous life.

Proverbs 11:4-5; 13:6

Hebrews 10:26-31