

People Who Have Upright Lives Keep Their Word

James 5:12

James elevates the following _____ as _____ above everything else he's taught.

James 5:12a

The true believer has no _____ for taking any oaths.

James 5:12b

All such "swearing" is a form of _____.

Ephesians 4:29; 5:4

Taking oaths is not necessarily _____.

Abraham took an oath with _____ after he returned _____ to him—

Genesis 21:22-24

Abraham made his _____ take an oath to get his son a _____ from his relatives —

Genesis 24:1-3

The _____ spies made an oath with _____ for protecting them —

Joshua 2:12-20

_____ even took an oath to make one in Abraham's line after the order of _____ —

Hebrews 6:17-18

When _____ are taken, they are meant to be _____.

Numbers 30:2; Deuteronomy 6:13

Failure to keep an oath is to take _____ in _____.

Exodus 20:7; Leviticus 19:12

Some oaths are _____.

_____ made a hasty oath without discerning the facts about the _____.

Joshua 9:15

_____ made a foolish vow that affected his only child (a _____).

Judges 11:30-31

_____ made a hasty vow that nearly cost his son his life.

1 Samuel 14:24

_____ made a foolish vow that caused John the Baptist to be _____.

Matthew 14:9-10

Some who wanted to _____ the Apostle _____ made a stupid vow.

Acts 23:12-13; 23:23-24

A _____ person's _____ requires no oath.

James 5:12c

The _____ found a way around _____ by vowing by things other than God.

Matthew 5:34-36

It was as if they were saying that their vow didn't count because they had their _____.

_____ rebuked them for their _____.

Matthew 5:37

The Apostle Paul instructs every _____ to be _____.

Ephesians 4:25

To fail to keep an oath or vow is to reveal a _____ far from _____.

James 5:12

Vows before _____ are to be taken very _____.

Exodus 20:7

The word "_____ " never refers to God judging _____.

James 2:13; Matthew 23:33; Jude 14-15

To take a vow and not keep it is to _____, the father of lies.

John 8:44; Revelation 21:8; Revelation 22:15

A liar does not cease to be a liar when he or she _____ lying. A liar ceases to be a liar when he or she starts _____ the _____.

If our _____ really do _____, then we will take oaths or vows very seriously.