

A Right Perspective of Life
Leads to Upright Living
James 4:13-17

There's a difference between _____ and _____.
Presumption is the refusal to acknowledge that _____ is
_____.
James 4:13-14a

There are five _____ statements that reveal the presumptuous person's _____.

1. "It's my _____" – "today or tomorrow"
2. "It's my _____" – "such and such a town"
3. "It's my _____" – "spend a year"
4. "It's my _____" – "and trade there"
5. "It's my _____" – "make a profit"

Notice how these five statements mimic the five statements of _____.
Isaiah 14:13-14

God hates presumption because it reveals a rebellious heart of _____ and _____.
Luke 12:19-20

_____ is good as long as one remembers that _____ may not come.
Luke 14:28-30; Proverbs 16:3

Life is _____ and _____ so learn how to think biblically.
James 4:14b-15

Your _____ is just a _____.
Psalm 102:3a; Psalm 102:11; Job 7:7, 9

Therefore, _____ all your _____ to the Lord.
You must acknowledge your ultimate _____ of
_____.

Job 8:9; 14:1-2
You must acknowledge God's _____
_____.

Proverbs 3:5-; 16:33

Every day is lived by the _____ of _____.

Psalm 139:16

Doing _____ is the supreme reason for our lives.

_____ affirmed this truth.

John 4:34

The Apostle _____ taught this truth.

Ephesians 6:6

_____ believed this truth.

Psalm 40:8

Self-reliance always leads to sinful _____ and _____.
James 4:16

This kind of bragging is a sin of the _____ which reveals a void of _____ in God.

Arrogance literally means "to _____".

Bragging and arrogance are wrong because they _____
the _____ one, not God.

Matthew 13:38; Ephesians 6:16

God has a _____ for you so _____ it.
James 4:17

True Christians _____ God's _____ when they know it.

Mark 3:34-35; John 14:23

Christians who _____ against God's will for their lives must bear the _____.

Luke 12:47-48

Failing to do God's will, may indicate an _____
_____.
Matthew 7:21-23