

Sacrificial Love Leads to Great Relationships

1 John 3:16-24

Every Christian _____ what _____ is.

_____ set the example for us.

By _____:

1 John 3:16

By _____ (he _____ the disciple's _____):

John 13:15

John expects Jesus' followers to _____.

1 John 3:16

Loving our brothers and sisters in Christ is an _____ for which Christ prayed.

John 17:22-23a

_____ is a _____ ministry which most naturally flows out of brotherly love.

John 17:22-23

God declares clear _____ for _____ to others.

1 John 3:17-18

1. One Christian has this world's _____ goods.
2. One Christian has a real _____ need.
3. God has made the Christian with possessions aware of the need of another Christian as a _____ of _____ and _____.

1 John 2:15

4. The Christian, who _____ his _____, reveals the absence of God's love in him.

Deuteronomy 15:7-11

If you give to help a fellow Christian, be careful to:

1. Give _____, not reluctantly or under compulsion
2 Corinthians 9:6-12
2. Give _____
2 Corinthians 9:7
3. Give without _____ any _____
Matthew 10:7-8
4. Give without expecting _____
Luke 6:34-35
5. Give _____
6. Give your _____, _____ and spiritual gifts
Romans 12 and 1 Corinthians 12
7. If you _____ a _____ to another Christian brother:

- _____ no _____
Deuteronomy 23:19-20
- Don't allow the _____ to cause _____
- Always remember that you are only a _____: It's _____.

Sacrificial love leads to a _____ before God.

A lot of people talk about _____ but few do it.

1 John 3:19

“_____” what?

1 John 3:18; James 2:14-20

When we love other Christians sacrificially, we most _____ our _____.

1 John 3:20-21

1. Christians will _____ their salvation.
2. _____ our sacrifice of love toward our brothers and sisters.
3. The sacrificial Christian is given confidence by _____ and His _____.

Christians, who love sacrificially, live in _____ to God's _____.

Obedience brings _____.

1 John 3:22

_____ in Christ and _____ for others are unmistakably linked together.

1 John 3:23

Christians, who love other Christians sacrificially, have a _____ that others lack.

1 John 3:24

1. He _____ in _____
Colossians 3:2-3
2. God _____ in _____
1 Corinthians 3:16
3. The _____ testifies within us that we are His children
Romans 8:16

Just as the _____ has perfect _____, Christians must seek to promote unity through sacrificial giving.

The _____ and _____ of sacrifice build great relationships because the believer who gives is most like Christ.

Philippians 2:5-8 ESV