

Three Principles for Setting Your Goals for the New Year

2 Corinthians 5:9-10

1. The _____: No matter where I am, _____ the Lord.
2 Corinthians 5:9

It takes _____ to _____ what pleases God.
Ephesians 5:8-10

People who _____ discernment _____
of things that displease the Lord.
Romans 1:28

_____ must be a priority for every Christian.
Proverbs 16:3, 9

Pleasing the Lord is _____.
Life is a bit more _____.
Proverbs 16:7

There is _____ from God.
Ecclesiastes 2:26

2. The _____: I have an _____ with Jesus at the Supreme Court of Heaven.
2 Corinthians 5:10

The _____ is the _____ part of my life.
Hebrews 9:27

I must learn to live in light of the grave.
Psalm 90:12; Psalm 39:4

I want to appear before Jesus _____.
1 John 2:28

3. The _____: _____ will be based on _____ done on earth.
2 Corinthians 5:10; Ecclesiastes 12:13-14

Can I say with _____ that my _____ is that of a true Christian?

Matthew 7:21-23

Will the things I'm giving my _____ to, stand the final _____?

1 Corinthians 3:12-15

Am I making a _____ on the other believers in my church?

Ephesians 4:15-16

Some goals that can be set in order to please God in 2011

1. I must settle the issue of whether or not I am a true Christian: I must be _____ - _____.
Luke 15:7

2. I must develop the _____ of the _____ in my life in the following areas (limit it to one or two):
Galatians 5

Colossians 1:10; Ephesians 5:8-10

3. I must show love for _____ and _____ on a consistent basis.
1 John 3:21-23

I will make it my goal to love God by _____ Him. How? _____

I will make it my goal to love others (outside of my _____). How? _____

4. I will make it my goal to _____ daily: yes or no.
Proverbs 15:8

5. I will pray daily for the _____ of the _____:
yes or no.
1 Timothy 2:1-4