

The Love of God Changes People

How Can I Let God Know that I Love Him

Deuteronomy 6:4-9

Jewish children _____ this text as soon as they were able to _____.

Deuteronomy 6:4

This statement is known as the _____.

We would describe this as their _____ statement.

The word Shema comes from the first Hebrew word in this text “_____” (shama).

_____ quoted the Shema on at least two different occasions, calling it the great commandment.

The Shema set the Jewish people apart from the _____ nations around them.

Psalm 96:5-6

The Shema teaches us how to live _____ in a polytheistic world.

Deuteronomy 6:5

Yahweh should be loved _____.

Heart: the seat of _____ Soul: the real person – _____ and _____

Might: physical _____ and _____

Wholehearted love for Yahweh keeps one from _____.

Deuteronomy 10:12-13; 11:13, 22-23; 30:16-20

Wholehearted _____ is revealed through wholehearted _____.

Deuteronomy 6:6

“These words” refers back to the _____ in Deuteronomy 5:6-21.

A commandment is not a _____ when you _____ the one commanding you.

_____ is easier when you know what you are to do by _____.

_____ Scripture is meant to keep us from straying into _____.

Psalm 119:11

Jesus linked a _____ command to the _____ commandment.

Leviticus 19:18; Matthew 22:37-40

The Jewish people were to teach God’s commandments to _____.

Deuteronomy 6:7

Teaching the Word of God was to be done _____ not _____.

Teaching the Word of God was to be part of a _____ not simply a scheduled _____.

The Jewish people were to be _____ by God’s Word.

Deuteronomy 6:8-9

Bind the Word of God on your hands: Scripture must guide and control our _____.

Scripture contrasts the work of the _____ and the foolishness of the _____.

Proverbs 13:4

Scripture teaches that our hard work is _____ unless God _____ it.

Deuteronomy 8:17-18

Put the Word of God as frontlets between your eyes (on your forehead): Scripture must guide and control our _____ and _____.

Jesus condemned _____ obedience to this command.

Matthew 23:5

God had already instructed the Jewish people of the _____ of this command.

Exodus 13:7-9, 11-16

Write the Word of God on your doorposts: Scripture must guide and control our _____.

Deuteronomy 11:18-21

The Jewish people also took this to be literal and made _____ for their doorposts.

Write them on your gates (city gates): Scripture must guide and control our _____.

Proverbs 1:20-22

Application: The one area that I need to focus on in order to grow in love with God more is: _____