

A Godly Father Leads by Example.

Psalm 51

The depth of your faith is revealed in your _____ to being _____ about your sin.

Confess your sin to the _____ of God sent to confront you, without _____ him.

2 Samuel 12:7a, 9, 13; James 5:16; 1 John 1:8, 10

Seek God's _____ and accept His _____ and _____.

Psalm 51:1-3

Confess the _____ of your sin to God.

Every sin committed is an affront to the _____ of _____.

Psalm 51:4a

God's _____ of my sin is always right.

Psalm 51:4b

I am the complete _____ of God's _____.

Psalm 51:5

The only way to have a right _____ with God is to be made _____.

Psalm 51:7

God's mercy _____ us under the load or our _____.

Psalm 51:8-9

_____ by _____ turning from sin to God and doing the following:

1. Get _____ by God and then stay _____.

Psalm 51:10

2. Make _____ with God your highest _____.

Psalm 51:11

- Be consistent in _____ and prayer.

- Be consistent in your _____
 - Keep _____ in _____ sin to God and others.
3. Make sure that your _____ is not dependent upon _____ but upon the work of God in your life.

Psalm 51:12

The restored person _____ how to be restored to God.

Psalm 51:13–15

Sinners cannot _____ God's _____.

Psalm 51:16; Romans 3:10–12

Only the _____ can be restored by God.

Psalm 51:17; James 4:10; 1 Peter 5:5–6

A proper _____ to being _____ about sin brings God's blessing upon His people.

Psalm 51:18–19; 2 Chronicles 7:14

The four keys to a right relationship with God are:

1. Be _____
2. Be _____
3. _____ God _____
4. _____ from sin _____