

Biblical Help for an Angry World

Angry? Become a Peace Maker not a Peace Breaker

Romans 14:15-19

While this text does not specifically address _____, it's important to understand the _____.

Most issues between Christians are about _____.
Romans 14:1

_____ about opinions is actually a way of passing _____.
Romans 14:10

Passing judgment puts a _____ in the way of the weak.
Romans 14:13

_____ of _____ must be followed by every sincere disciple of Christ – See Peacemaker Pamphlet.

Lack of _____ dishonors God.
Romans 14:15

1. It reveals a lack of love for _____ and _____
2. It _____ others
3. It _____ the _____ that God has for them _____ provides an opportunity for your good to be _____.

Romans 14:16; 1 Corinthians 10:32-33

No _____ is worth destroying relationships.
Romans 14:17

Christians must stop _____ primarily on _____ things: eating and drinking.
Philippians 3:19

Christians must _____ on the _____ things that really matter:
_____ before God (right living) _____ with God (the result of right living) _____ in the Holy Spirit (the result of peace with God

Romans 5:1-2

_____ is acceptable to God and man
Romans 14:18; Philippians 1:27

Godly living is evident through _____ -
_____.
Romans 14:19

1. Pursue _____
James 3:17-18

2. Pursue _____
2 Corinthians 5:18

Application:

Identify where you are on the _____
and put a star by it.

What do you need to _____ to your life in order to become a _____ ? _____

How did _____ make _____ with you?
