

Biblical Help for an Angry World

Anger Must be Replaced with Problem Solving
Ephesians 4:26-27

Every Christian must deal with _____.

_____ anger exists..._____.

Ephesians 4:26a; Psalm 4:4

When anger becomes _____, deal with it

_____.

Ephesians 4:26b; Deuteronomy 24:15

A failure to deal with _____ anger is exactly what the _____ wants.

Ephesians 4:27; 2 Corinthians 2:10-11

Problem solving requires God _____

_____.

1. Be _____ in your communication.

Good communication requires _____.

Ephesians 4:15

Avoid all attempts at _____.

Ephesians 4:25

2. Keep _____: don't allow problems to

_____.

Ephesians 4:26

3. Keep your focus on _____ the problem and off of _____ the person.

Ephesians 4:29; Matthew 7:17-18; 13:47-48

Romans 12:17; James 4:11

4. Be _____ not _____ : have a clear plan for reconciliation.

Ephesians 4:31–32; Romans 12:18–19 ESV

Application:

Is there an area where the _____ has gotten a _____ in your life because of your unforgiveness? _____

If there is a person whom you have yet to fully forgive, what must you do in order to be removed from _____ for your refusal to forgive and seek full reconciliation?

Which of the four rules of communication is the _____ for you, which you must _____ to Christ for His strength?

Write out a prayer of _____ which you will pray _____ until you are fully committed to _____ and the glory of God.
