

Growing, Serving, Giving

Follow the Example of Jesus: Serve Others
John 13:1-20

Real service is an act of _____ not _____.
When most people wanted to be _____, Jesus
_____.
John 13:1a

Jesus' love drove Him to think of _____ instead of
_____.
John 13:1b

Jesus didn't allow His _____ (security) to hinder His
_____.
God's wonderful gifts must _____ not _____ service.
John 13:3a; John 3:35

Jesus did not _____ His _____ over His disciples but served them.
John 13:3b

Spiritual _____ is observable through _____ toward others.
_____ is more important than being _____.
John 13:4a

_____ is more important than _____ others.
John 13:4b

_____ others is more important than being

John 13:5

John 13:8

John 13:11

Those who _____ the most must be _____ by those whom they _____.
People who love and serve _____ should never be _____.
John 13:12a; 12:26; Romans 12:10-11

Doctrinal _____ without a servant attitude is _____.

Expecting to be served will always lead to a _____, _____ pride.

Christians who have sold themselves to serving Christ don't have time to
_____.

In serving, we _____ to serve.
John 13:12b-13; Titus 2:7-8

If you are truly a student of Jesus', you must serve others _____, _____ and _____.
Serving others is never an opportunity to become _____ since a servant only does what he is
_____.
John 13:16; Luke 17:9-10

Only _____ servants are _____ by the Master.
John 13:17; Luke 19:11-27

On the last day, we will give an account, not of our
_____, but of our _____, whether they are good or evil.
2 Corinthians 5:9-10; Psalm 62:11-12