

Three Strategic Goals for 2013

Goal #1 - Evangelism

Hard-Hearted People Miss What God is Doing - Mark 6:45-52

Mark gives us an _____ with his reference to “the loaves”.

Mark 6:44, 52; Zechariah 7:11-12

The _____ reveal to us just how easy it is to have a hardened heart toward the _____ of God.

Hebrews 3:12-13

There is a key verse which unlocks our understanding of the disciple’s _____.

Mark 6:37

We, like the disciples, can mistake being _____ for being _____ with God.

We, like the disciples can mistake _____ for being right with God.

_____ can blind us to our own hard-heartedness.

Mark 6:34

Feeding _____ and picking up _____ baskets full, can blind us to our own hard-heartedness.

Mark 6:42-44

Feeding _____ and picking up _____ baskets full can blind us to our own hard-heartedness.

Mark 8:4-5, 8-9

A hard heart only sees what’s _____ at the _____.

A hard heart experiences trouble and uses _____ and effort to overcome it.

Mark 6:48

1. It is possible to make _____ by putting forth more _____.
2. Whatever progress one does make through human effort is _____.
3. The trouble will appear as though _____ is _____ you.

The purpose for trouble is so that we can see _____ in the _____.

_____ is in the midst of every _____ His people face.

Mark 6:48

Every hardship is an opportunity to _____ the _____ of God.

Mark 6:48

To “pass by them” is a reference to a NT _____ just as was done in the OT.

Exodus 33:18-19, 21-22

Those whose hearts are right with God, see the wind as an opportunity to _____ with _____.

Matthew 14:28-29

The _____ respond to _____ in two ways which show their hard-heartedness.

1. They were _____.

Mark 6:50

The disciples missed the connection between Christ’s _____ and His _____ in the wind.

Mark 6:45

2. They were utterly _____ (_____).

Mark 6:51

The disciples missed the connection between the feeding of the 5,000 and the _____ of the wind.

Mark 6:52

A failure to _____ one area of life biblically will lead to _____ in other areas.

Mark 8:17, 20-21

This understanding has nothing to do with human _____ and everything to do with God’s _____.

Ezekiel 11:19-20

The breaking of the bread for the _____ and the _____ was important in many ways.

It revealed that Jesus was powerful over _____.

It revealed that Jesus _____ for people.

It reveals that no hardship is _____.

It reveals that every hardship has _____.

The most important reasons for the breaking of the bread are:

Jesus is the _____ of _____

John 6:35, 48

Jesus is the _____ of the OT.

John 6:32-33, 41

Jesus is the _____ of the Tabernacle.

Leviticus 24:5, 7