

Palm Sunday is Just a View of Things to Come

John 12:12-13 & Revelation 7:9-10

The Triumphal Entry reflected the _____ _____ of the day.

Jesus entering on the donkey's colt is a picture of the _____ of _____.
John 12:14-15; Zechariah 9:9

The large crowd cried out for _____ in a nationalistic sense.
John 12:13; Psalm 118:25-26

Even Jesus' disciples fell into the trap of _____
_____.
John 12:16

This same fickle crowd would turn on Jesus just _____ later.
John 12:36; Matthew 27:22-23

The scene in Heaven can be _____ to and _____ with the Triumphal Entry.

Both had crowds that were _____ about
_____.

Palm Sunday had a _____ crowd.

Heaven has an _____ crowd.

The Palm Sunday crowd wanted _____ to _____ them.

The Heavenly crowd _____ Jesus for the _____ which He had given them.

Both reflected the _____ reality of their day.

The Triumphal Entry stated: John 12:13 Indicating that _____ work of
_____ had not yet been completed.

The Heavenly scene states: Revelation 7:10 Indicating that Jesus' salvation has been
_____.

Both reflect upon the _____ Covenant.
The Palm Sunday crowd wanted to realize God's covenantal promise that every _____ would be _____ through Abraham's offspring.
Genesis 18:17-18; 22:17-18

The Heavenly crowd _____ in _____ of the Abrahamic Covenant.
Revelation 7:9; 5:9

Conclusion:

1. Only the blood of Jesus Christ brings salvation; the message of _____ must permeate our worship.
Revelation 7:13-14
2. God wants people from every tribe, language and nation to worship Him together; the _____ should embody this truth.
3. God is pleased with an innumerable crowd praising Him together; the church must continue to _____ as a picture of our Heavenly future.
4. God is pleased with _____ and _____ in worship.
Luke 19:39-40