

God Gives Hope through the Cross of Christ
Numbers 21:4-9

Three important events occur in _____.

_____ died – v. 1

_____ is banned from the Promised Land – vv. 10-13

_____ died – vv. 22-29

Chapter _____ begins with a mighty _____ from God.

The _____ attacked Israel taking some captive – v. 1

The _____ made a vow to God – v. 2

God _____ to their _____ and gave them victory – v. 3

There is a _____ purpose for the _____ of our faith.

_____ was the result of being _____ with God.

Numbers 21:4

Once grumbling begins, it will only grow in _____ and _____.

Numbers 21:5

1. Overemphasis on my _____

2. Underemphasizing _____

3. A _____ that what God does provide is _____ Grumbling against God and Moses was a _____.

God punished the people with _____ so that they would see the seriousness of having an _____ spirit.

Numbers 21:6

These serpents were probably _____ vipers, also known as _____ vipers.

_____ are responsible for killing more people than any other snake.

_____ people die each year from snake bites and another _____ are permanently disabled.

Deuteronomy 8:14–15; Jeremiah 8:17

God desires that his people _____ of their

_____.

This event is the only “_____” in which Moses did not _____ for the people before they asked him to.

Numbers 21:7a

Once the people were _____ and

_____, Moses prayed for them.

Numbers 21:7

God desires that people face the _____ of their _____.

The bronze serpent on a pole forced people to face the _____ of their _____.

Numbers 21:8

The bronze serpent represented _____ who would be lifted up for all to look at as a _____ of their sins.

John 3:14;12:32

Knowing about the _____ and knowing about _____ cannot bring the healing that looking in faith can bring.

Numbers 21:9; John 12:37

When _____ became king some _____ after Moses lived, people had come to _____ the bronze snake on a pole.

2 Kings 18:4

Jesus Christ came to earth to die a _____ death for sinners.

He took the _____ we deserve and to give us the _____ we don't deserve.

2 Corinthians 5:21

Jesus _____ the Fathers just demand for sin's _____.

Hebrews 2:17; Isaiah 53:10

Only when sinners look to Christ by faith can _____ take place.

Galatians 2:16