

Breaking Addictions: The Road to Victory
Addictions are Destructive by Nature
Romans 1:28-32

Full rebellion comes when one's _____ of life
_____ God.

Romans 1:28

These people deduce that God is _____ or

“did not see fit” is two Greek words:

The negative “did not” - οὐ (ou)

The verb “see fit” - δοκιμάζω dokimazō

_____ ; _____ of, accept as trustworthy

Horst Robert Balz and Gerhard Schneider, vol. 1, Exegetical Dictionary of the New Testament (Grand Rapids, Mich.: Eerdmans, 1990-), 341.

Having _____ on God, God in turn
_____.

Galatians 6:7-8

Paul uses a _____ on _____ to describe the relationship between man's evaluation of God and God's evaluation of man.

Paul uses this word to describe what could happen
if he were to become _____ in his
_____.

1 Corinthians 9:27

Once given up to their _____, they _____ do things which ought not to be done.

There is a _____ which accompanies this depravity as seen in the Pharisee's judgment of Paul.

Acts 22:22

Once a person is given up by God, the _____ life knows no _____.

The _____ of the person is bent toward evil.

Romans 1:29

These four things describe the _____ state of the _____ man or woman.

There is a _____ - _____ that is eventually seen by others.

Mark 5:1-5

Not content with being self-destructive, the person given over to depravity _____ with those closest to him or her.

Romans 1:29

These five characteristics bring _____ to _____ relationships.

The addict is so bent on _____ the inner lust of the heart that _____ is no longer important.

The _____ of _____ life becomes so minimized that people only exist for the benefit of the addict.

Romans 1:29-31

These twelve things describe a life _____ _____ of _____.

No longer content with being _____ with evil, these people _____ or plan ahead for more sinning.

Two very _____ occur when a person is fully given up to the lust of the heart.

1. _____ no longer matter

Romans 1:32

2. They begin to _____ other to _____ them in their sinning.

Romans 1:32

There are only _____ ways to _____ and Paul describes them in the next chapter.

First – Live to the _____ of _____.

Romans 2:6-7

Second – Live for _____ - _____.

Romans 2:8

Jesus Christ live, died and rose again so that all who have faith in Him would be _____ to live a life _____ to Him.

1 John 5:4-5