

Breaking Addictions: The Road to Victory
Victory Over Addictions Means More Than Saying “No!”
James 4:7-10 – Part 1

The emphasis on _____ creates an _____.

An inclusio means that everything between two _____ or _____ statements (_____) relates to the statements.
James 4:6, 10

Verses 7-9 describe what _____ looks like.

_____ to God is the first and preeminent evidence of
_____ and leads inexorably to _____ over sin.
James 4:7

The purpose for submission is found in the _____ of God toward _____ people.
“ _____ ” makes us look at previous verses.
James 4:6

_____ is necessary in order to defeat sin and sinful habits.
Romans 5:20

An understanding of God’s _____ grace must drive us to a _____ and _____ submission to the God of grace.
James 4:7; 1 Peter 5:5–6

A humble person is submissive to _____ and to every _____ instituted by God.
1 Peter 2:13–15; Romans 13:1

_____ is the perfect example of submission.
He submitted himself to _____.

Luke 2:51

He submitted himself to the _____ of
_____.
Philippians 2:3-11

Submission to God _____ us to have _____ over sin.

We can only _____ the devil when we are _____ to God.
James 4:7; Ephesians 6:13

Jesus was able to resist Satan’s temptations because He _____ God and His _____.
Matthew 4:10–11

Attempting to resist the devil without a humble _____ of _____ to God is destructive.
Acts 19:13-16

Resisting the devil is an activity only done by
_____ to God.
1 Peter 5:8–9

Resisting the devil can never be accomplished by _____ God’s appointed _____ in your life.
Romans 13:1–2

_____ is a central part of the _____ life.
Prayer is us _____ to our gracious
God.
James 4:8; Psalm 18:6

When we draw near to God in prayer, He will draw near to us in _____ and _____.
James 4:8; Psalm 40:1