

Breaking Addictions: The Road to Victory
Victory Over Addictions Means More Than Saying "No!"
James 4:7-10 – Part 2

Only after we have _____ ourselves, _____ to God's Word and _____ near to Him will _____ be possible.

There are five _____ which are evidence of biblical _____.

1. _____ your _____ and start living to the glory of God.
James 4:8; Isaiah 1:16–17; Psalm 24:3–4
2. _____ your _____ and stop all hypocrisy.
James 4:8; James 1:7–8
3. Be _____ with the _____ of sin.

James 4:9; Romans 7:24–25

Our holy and loving Heavenly Father has called His children out of the _____ of _____ and into the _____ of _____.

Matthew 5:4

To _____ in sin ought to be completely _____ to the children of God.

Romans 6:1–2

God wants His children to _____ up to their _____.

Revelation 3:17–18

4. Start taking sin _____; it's not _____.

James 4:9; Luke 6:25

_____ sin and its consequences makes the children of God _____ to falling.

1 Corinthians 5:1–2

God's children should _____ the possibility of sinning rather than _____ sinful living.

2 Corinthians 7:10; Psalm 6:6

Only _____ make light of _____.
Ecclesiastes 7:6

5. The things of this world that bring _____ will _____: only the things of God are _____.
James 4:9

Living for _____ and a refusal to be _____ will bring ultimate mourning.

James 5:1–3

Joy for the child of God must be found in the _____ and _____ of the Father, not in the _____ of possessions.

John 15:9–11; Luke 6:24; 12:15

True _____ which is comprised of submission, prayer and repentance brings the _____ of God.

James 4:10; Matthew 23:12; Psalm 149:4

Application

True victory over sin and sinful habits comes only through a _____ and _____ submission to God.

The first place to start is in submission to God through _____ in Jesus Christ for _____.

Then, as a follower of Jesus, submit yourself to a daily time of _____ and _____.

The serious follower of Christ _____ the desires of the sinful nature and _____ and _____ sinful habits immediately.

Bring that sin into the light by _____ it to someone who will hold you accountable and never _____ your sinful action.