

Jesus Christ is the King of Glory
Psalm 24

The Lord has _____ of everything.

All of _____ belongs to _____.

Psalm 24:1–2; Genesis 2:4

Jesus is the _____ therefore Jesus is _____.

John 1:3; 1 Corinthians 8:6; Colossians 1:16

Hebrews 1:2

The Lord God cannot be _____ by just

_____.

Psalm 24:3; Psalm 15:1

It is the _____ of the Lord.

It is God's _____

Exodus 3:5; Exodus 19:12

We must never be _____ or _____ when we approach God since He is holy, holy, holy.

Sinful, fallen humans must be _____ with _____ in order to approach God.

_____ must take place _____ to approaching God.

Psalm 24:4; Hebrews 10:22

_____ always _____ righteous living.

Psalm 24:4; Psalm 15; 1 John 1:9

The _____ of _____ must be recognized.

God blesses _____.

Psalm 24:5; Proverbs 10:7

God endows the righteous with more

_____ : The principle of _____ and _____.

Psalm 24:5; Galatians 6:7, 8; Psalm 126:6

Those who seek God's _____ will show it through their _____.

By their _____ you will _____ them.

Psalm 24:6; Matthew 7:15-20

Jesus Christ was cheered on that Triumphant Entry into Jerusalem because He was the _____ one who sought the _____ of God.

Matthew 21:9

The Lord's dwelling place is a _____ of _____.

The place of the Lord's dwelling must receive

_____.

Psalm 24:7, 9

The picture is that of a place _____ for the King of glory to enter.

The gates and doors needed to be _____ up out of their _____ in order to make room for the King to enter.

Jesus Christ was _____ as the coming Savior and yet he was _____ by the religious leaders who should have fallen in worship.

Luke 19:38–40

Jesus entered the _____, the place where God's _____ was to dwell, and lifted it up in the presence of the people.

Matthew 21:12–13

The Lord's _____ is to be understood by all who would _____ Him.

Christ has won the battle and _____ in _____ over His enemies.

Psalm 24:8; Colossians 2:15

Hebrews 2:14

Jesus Christ is the _____ of the _____ of Heaven.

Psalm 24:10

Jesus rode into Jerusalem on the foal of a donkey as the King of _____
(_____).

Matthew 21:6–7; Zechariah 9:9

Jesus will one day return, riding on a
_____ as the _____ king.

Revelation 19:11-16

In order for us to have a right relationship with Christ, he must be the _____ Lord of our lives after which He will reign as the King of _____ in our lives.