

Jesus Christ Defeated the Last Enemy
1 Corinthians 15:12-26

_____ the resurrection of Christ has _____ consequences.

1. The preaching of the Gospel would be mere _____.
1 Corinthians 15:14
2. Your _____ that led to _____ would be empty and futile.
1 Corinthians 15:14
3. The _____ of the _____ would be in question.
1 Corinthians 15:15
4. The _____ of _____ would be of no effect.
1 Corinthians 15:17
5. _____ who _____ would remain in the grasp of death.
1 Corinthians 15:18
6. All of _____ would be reduced to _____.
1 Corinthians 15:19

The fact of the _____ of Jesus Christ gives Christians an _____ hope.

1. _____ is the _____ of many who will rise to eternal life.
1 Corinthians 15:20; James 1:18
2. Jesus _____ the _____ for many.
1 Corinthians 15:21; Romans 5:12, 15

3. Jesus gives _____ beyond _____ to all who have faith in Him.
1 Corinthians 15:22–23; Romans 6:8
Hebrews 2:14–15

4. The _____ comes through the power of Christ's resurrection.
1 Corinthians 15:24

- Jesus, the Son of God will hand over the Kingdom to the Father in _____.
Colossians 1:19–20; 2:13–15
- Jesus leads His _____ in procession to the Father.
2 Corinthians 2:14
- Christ's current reign will continue until every one of His _____ are _____ by Him.
1 Corinthians 15:24; Romans 5:10
- The very _____ to be destroyed is death.
- This is an _____ / _____ principle.
1 Corinthians 15:25–26

Already: Jesus has _____ by His resurrection.
2 Timothy 1:10

Not yet: Death will be _____ at the end of time.
Revelation 21:4
1 Corinthians 15:54-57