

The Everlasting Father is the Light in the Darkness
Isaiah 9:6

With _____ as king, _____ was unstable and in a dark place spiritually.

Ahaz was the 11th king of Judah and ruled for _____ years.

2 Kings 16:2

Ahaz was a _____ being and therefore destined to _____.

2 Chronicles 28:27

Ahaz was so wicked that he was _____ in the tombs of the kings.

2 Chronicles 28:27

Ahaz was a despicable king and father who gave _____ and the _____ up to idolatry.

2 Kings 16:3

_____ were often looked upon as fathers to those under their care.

Jesus shows us that being a father is more about _____ and _____ than about physical reproduction.

Negatively, _____ is a father.

_____ is the father of all who do _____.

John 8:44

_____ is the father of _____.

John 8:44

A good father _____ for those who _____ on him.

Genesis 45:7–8; Job 29:16; Isaiah 22:20–21

The _____ became a father to those whom he led to faith in Christ.

1 Corinthians 4:14–15

Jesus is the _____.

This is not an affirmation of Pentecostal Oneness Theology – Jesus is God the _____, not God the _____.

John 17:1–2

Jesus fulfills the role of _____ to those who are His own.

Revelation 21:6–7

Jesus is the kingly father who never _____: He is _____.

Luke 24:6–7; Romans 6:9; Revelation 1:17–18

Jesus is everlasting, having no _____ and no _____.

John 1:1–2; 8:58

Jesus is a _____ to the _____.

John 14:18

Jesus is a father to all who become _____ of God through _____ in Him.

Isaiah 53:10

Jesus is the Everlasting Father because He will never _____ His _____.

Hebrews 13:5; Psalm 27:10

Jesus gave us the best _____ to _____:

How to _____ others: He _____ the feet of the disciples.

John 13:15

How to _____ and _____: He obeyed His Father and died on the cross.

Philippians 2:4-8

How to _____: He did not sin in response to the sins of others against Him.

1 Peter 2:21–22; Hebrews 12:3

How a _____ should love his _____: He lived and died for her.

Ephesians 5:25

How _____ are to _____ their children: He never provokes them to anger.

Ephesians 6:4; Hebrews 12:6