

Kingdom Living in a Fallen World
The Beatitudes: Principles of Sowing and Reaping – Part 1
Matthew 5:1-5

The Beatitudes are meant for the _____ today.

The Beatitudes emphasize the principle of _____ and _____ found in Scripture.

Hosea 8:7; 10:13; Galatians 6:7-8

The Beatitudes form the _____ for the rest of the Sermon on the Mount.

The first Beatitude emphasizes _____.

Matthew 5:3

The last Beatitude emphasizes _____.

Matthew 5:10

_____ created an _____ to show us the importance of the Kingdom of Heaven in the life of Jesus' followers.

The first and last Beatitude are in the _____ tense (vv. 3, 10).

“Is” is the present tense form of the verb “_____.”

The second through the eighth Beatitudes are in the _____ tense (vv. 4-9).

“_____” is not in the Greek but what shall be given is in the future tense.

_____, _____, _____ and _____ so on are in the future tense.

The Beatitudes describe the _____ of those who are right with the King of Heaven.

_____ people are not without hope.

Matthew 5:3

The poor in spirit are those who are _____ and _____ before the Lord.

Matthew 11:5; Isaiah 61:1

The poor in spirit stand in contrast to the _____ - _____ hypocrites who depended on their own goodness.

Romans 3:9-12

Self-sufficient people have no need of _____ and stand outside the Kingdom of Heaven.

James 4:6; 1 Peter 5:5

The poor in spirit are those who are _____ - _____ by the Spirit of God and have God as their King.

Philippians 3:8-9

Spiritually bankrupt people _____ over the _____ things.

Matthew 5:4

The poor in spirit mourn over their _____.

2 Corinthians 7:10

The poor in spirit mourn over the sins of _____.

Psalm 119:136

The poor in spirit mourn over the _____ / _____ tension of the Christian life.

1 Thessalonians 4:13; Romans 8:23

The poor in spirit find their _____ in the _____ who comforts.

2 Corinthians 1:3-7; Revelation 7:17; Isaiah 61:3

Spiritually bankrupt people _____ their _____ from the King of Heaven.

Matthew 5:5

The poor in spirit do not rely upon their own _____ for daily life any more than they did for their _____.

Psalm 37:11; Colossians 3:12-13; James 1:21

The poor in spirit draw their strength from the King who _____ in _____.

Matthew 11:29

To be meek is to be _____ and _____.

Matthew 21:5; 1 Peter 3:4

The poor in spirit, who draw their strength from their King, will _____ the _____ earth.

Psalm 37:10-11

The inheritance of the _____ is another already/not yet tension in Scripture.

Our King owns the _____ and makes it available to those who _____ to Him.

1 Corinthians 10:25-26

The _____ await the _____ of the heavens and the earth.

Isaiah 65:17; 2 Peter 3:13