

If We Compare Silent the Stones Will Cry Out
Luke 19:28-48

Not all that seems _____ is _____.
Luke 19:37

Just because there is _____ in the praise of God does not mean the _____ for that praise is right.

Luke 19:37

A _____ seeks for a sign.
Luke 11:29
_____ and _____ don't necessarily produce righteousness in the observers.

John 10:37-39

The motivation for the praise of God was the _____ that Jesus would overthrow the Romans.

Luke 19:38 ESV

The multitude changed the Psalm and made its emphasis an _____.

Psalm 118:26-27

Like stubborn Israel had done before, these followers of Jesus wanted a _____ rather than a _____.

1 Samuel 8:7

The multitude of disciples unwittingly changed the _____ of praise at Jesus birth, emphasizing peace in Heaven not on earth.

Luke 2:13-14

It is as if they were acknowledging that the _____ of _____ (Jerusalem) would never be at peace.

Jeremiah 6:14-15; 8:11-12

The Pharisees feared the _____ and _____ Jesus and the rightful king.

Luke 19:39

_____ is faithful to proclaim God even when His _____ seek to _____ His people.

Luke 19:40

Creation speaks when some _____ must be _____.

Genesis 4:10

There can be no _____ when Jesus is _____. Jesus was moved to _____ by the _____ of His rule.

Luke 19:41

Jesus took no _____ in the fact that the _____ of Jerusalem and its people was sealed.

Luke 19:42

The _____ and _____ of Jesus brought calamity upon Jerusalem, the City of Peace.

The _____ who should have known what brought peace, were blinded to real peace.

Luke 19:42

Following their own _____, they rejected real peace only to have all peace taken fully from them.

Luke 19:43-44; Jeremiah 23:17, 19

The stones that cry out are the stones of the _____ and the _____ which were completely destroyed in _____ A.D.

Luke 19:43-44; 21:20-24; 23:28-31

_____ of the _____ of _____ can never bring peace.

The stones (_____) of your life are crying out that your rejection of Christ is _____ you.

This is all because you did not recognize the _____ of God on your life.

Luke 19:44

_____ is the day of salvation because _____ may be too late.

Hebrews 4:6-7