

Real Hope is Available Because Jesus is Alive
Luke 24:36-49

Loss of hope shapes the way we _____ and _____ to life.

The _____ about Jesus' followers, at the news of His resurrection from the dead, _____ their loss of hope.

The _____ who went to the tomb and found it empty were _____.

Luke 24:4

When the women saw the _____ at the empty tomb, they were _____.

Luke 24:5

When the apostles heard the story of the women they thought that it was just an _____.

Luke 24:11

When _____ looked into the tomb to find it empty, he went home _____.

Luke 24:12

The two disciples on the road to Emmaus expressed their _____ to the stranger who walked with them.

Luke 24:21

Their hope was _____ since they were only concerned about _____ Israel.

While on _____ in Rome, _____ revealed the truth behind Israel's hope.

Acts 28:20, 28

The same two disciples told the stranger that they were _____ by the _____ of the women who went to the tomb and found it empty.

Luke 24:22

These same two disciples described themselves as having hearts that _____.

Luke 24:32

Jesus _____ to the disciples that He is alive and that created _____ within them.

The two disciples hurried back to _____ (_____ miles away) in the dark of night to find the eleven apostles.

Luke 24:33

The eleven apostles also had seen Jesus and were _____ with the _____ that Jesus had risen from the tomb.

Luke 24:33-34

The two disciples then begin to relate their own story of the _____ who talked with them as they walked.

Luke 24:35

A risen Savior might be _____ and _____ for a bit, but true believers are given the ability to see Jesus for who He is.

The difference between the true Christian and the unbeliever is the Spirit given ability to _____ and _____.

2 Corinthians 4:3-4

Jesus stood among His disciples and declared " _____ " to their _____ souls.

Luke 24:36

Jesus wants us to _____ His resurrection.

Luke 24:37-40

Jesus gives _____ of His resurrection, unless the Spirit has not opened your eyes.

Luke 24:41-43; 1 Corinthians 15:3-8

Romans 11:8, 10

Jesus used His _____ to open the minds of his disciples to understand the Scriptures.

Luke 24:44-49

In our enlightened society where _____ is worshiped, the resurrection has been labeled a _____.

The resurrection of Jesus cannot be _____ through _____.

The resurrection cannot be _____ through science, even though it has extensive _____ documentation.

Acts 1:1-3

The proof of the resurrection is seen in the _____ of _____ lives of those who truly believe.