

Jesus Conforms His Disciples to His Image
Matthew 10:24-25

Every disciple must _____ his _____.
Jesus reminds the twelve of their _____
_____ as _____.
Jesus was recognized as a _____ by those who were not his _____.

Matthew 9:11; 17:24

Jesus declares himself to be a _____ to the _____.

Matthew 10:24, 25

Jesus reminds his disciples of their _____
_____ as _____.

Jesus must be _____ of those who _____ Him.

Matthew 10:24, 25

When Jesus is master, then we are most _____ being his _____.

Galatians 1:10

Every disciple must make it his goal to _____ his
_____.

The twelve must find their _____ in being like Jesus since they will never _____ Him.

Matthew 10:25

The disciple of Jesus must find satisfaction in the fact that he shares in the _____ of his _____.

Every disciple of Jesus should _____ to be _____.
Belonging to the _____ of the master made the slave an _____ of the master.

Matthew 10:25

Jesus wanted to make the twelve completely _____ of what they could expect so that they were not _____.

Matthew 10:25

Jesus' statement _____ the twelve of what has already _____.

Matthew 9:34

Jesus' statement _____ what will occur in the _____.

Matthew 12:24

Jesus wanted the twelve to be fully aware of what the _____ thought of Him, and subsequently His followers.

Jesus' critics accused Him of being _____
_____.

Matthew 10:25; Mark 3:22, 30

Jesus' critics accused Him of being in _____ with _____.

Luke 11:15

Calling Jesus _____ was as _____ as His enemies could get and recalls God's pronouncement of judgment through Elijah.

2 Kings 1:2, 16

The twelve should not be surprised at _____ or _____ attacks upon them by the enemies of Jesus.

Acts 5:17-18, 41

Application:

It is just as important for Jesus' followers today as for the twelve to be _____ of the _____.

Matthew 11:28-30

The family of Christ is _____ than any earthly family.

John 1:12-13

When _____ comes, don't be ashamed of Jesus
but live _____ for Him.

Philippians 3:10, Revelation 12:11