

The Parables of Jesus: More than Good Stories-Part 2 Matthew 13:34-35

Matthew makes the statement that Jesus began to _____ speak to the crowds in parables
Matthew 13:34

Why Parables according to Mt. 13:35?

To _____ what was spoken by the _____
Matthew 13:35a

Who is the prophet? _____
1 Chronicles 25:1-2

What did _____ speak/write? 12 Psalms (11 of the 17 that compose Book III)

How does _____ fulfill what was spoken by _____ in Psalm 78?

1. By speaking in a _____ way-Both used _____ to reveal deeper divine truths

Psalm 78:2
Matthew 13:35b

2. By having a similar _____-Both Asaph and Jesus have the goal of teaching _____

Psalm 78:3-8
Matthew 13:43

3. By revealing similar divine _____-Both Psalm 78 and Matthew 13 contain similar themes (3 examples)

-God's people are those people that receive the word of God by _____ and produce a harvest of righteous works

Psalm 78:9-31
Matthew 13:3-9

-Not all _____ who claim to be or are identified with God's people really are God's people
Psalm 78:67-68
Matthew 13:24-30

-God chose what appears to be _____ and insignificant in the world to become _____ and mighty

Psalm 78:70-72
Matthew 13:31-32

Matthew _____ on Psalm 78 by changing a few words when he quotes it in Matthew 13:35

Psalm 78:2
Matthew 13:35

Jesus is not just the fulfillment of the hope of _____ but Jesus is the hope for all _____

-The history of _____ finds its ultimate fulfillment in Christ

-The history of the _____ finds its ultimate fulfillment in Christ

From the _____ of the world God's plan to send His Son to be both Christ and Lord has been proclaimed in a hidden way

Romans 16:25-27