

The Kingdom of Heaven...Where Will You Spend Eternity?
Matthew 13:47-50

No one will escape the _____.
Matthew 13:47

The gospel is given without _____ to
_____ people.
Matthew 28:19; Mark 16:15

The gospel net of the kingdom will _____ people out of the _____ of humanity.
Matthew 13:47

No one is _____ by the message of the kingdom; not by _____,
_____, social status or anything else.
Revelation 7:9-10

At the _____, the gospel net of the kingdom will be brought to shore and no one will escape.
Matthew 13:48

The _____ is already being drug toward shore
and will find its _____ at the last day.
Revelation 20:11-15

At the last day, when the _____ net is drug to shore, a _____ of humanity will ensue.
Matthew 13:48

Jesus explains the parable with _____ in terms similar to the parable of the wheat and the tares (vv.
37-43).
Matthew 13:49-50

There are three key components of the _____ of the
_____.

1. The end of the age will entail a _____ of
_____ people.
Matthew 13:48; Matthew 13:41

2. _____ come to _____ the evil
from the righteous.

Matthew 13:49; 25:31-32

3. The _____ will throw the _____ into eternal judgment.

Matthew 13:49-50; Matthew 13:41-42

Jesus gives three components to the _____
_____ of the wicked.
Matthew 13:50; 13:42

1. They will be thrown into the _____
_____.

Matthew 5:29-30

2. They will _____.

Matthew 2:18

3. They will _____ their _____.

The final judgment is..._____.

The _____ state or destiny of a person cannot be _____ once the end comes.

The evil and the good are judged by _____ standards not _____ standards.

God is not _____; He openly and plainly describes what _____ is like, yet the evil person will _____ to turn to Him by faith.

Only those who _____ Jesus Christ by faith in this life have the _____ of life with the Father in the next.