

True Christians Rest on the Authority of Scripture
Matthew 24:32-35

Now Jesus draws attention to the _____ and _____ in nature to validate His Word as truth.
Matthew 24:32

Jesus is not speaking of anything special by using the fig tree; _____ would picture the same thing.
Luke 21:29-33

Just as springtime leaves announce summer, the _____ of _____ will announce the destruction of Jerusalem.
Matthew 24:15-16

Just as springtime leaves announce summer, the disciples should be looking for the _____ was speaking of.
Matthew 24:33

Jesus is declaring His desire that His disciples be _____ and _____ of the events announcing the destruction of Jerusalem.
Matthew 24:15-16

Jesus is foretelling what will happen in the lives of the _____ that was _____ during His earthly ministry.
Matthew 24:34

The phrase “this generation will not pass away” cannot mean any other _____ than the one of _____ day.

“This generation” is used _____ times in _____ verses and always means the particular generation being addressed.
Matthew 11:16; Luke 17:25

All the events that Jesus has just addressed will and did take place at the _____ of _____.
Matthew 24:34

Jesus wants His disciples to trust _____ more than they trust _____.
Matthew 24:35

The phrase “heaven and earth may pass away...” is a reminder that _____ things have a _____ and an _____ point.

Don’t trust in _____ things that will _____ you.

Jews believed that the Temple was the place that _____ and _____ met.
Psalm 78:68-69; Isaiah 66:21-23

By trusting in the _____, the _____ failed to realize that it could fail them.

Jesus assured His disciples that His word was _____ and would not have an _____.
Matthew 24:35; Isaiah 40:8

Jesus did not want His disciples to be taken by _____ but to _____ and _____ Him and His word.

No _____ will save you but _____ in Christ and His word will save you.
1 Peter 1:22-25
