

Remember, Jesus Will Come Again. Be Prepared.
Matthew 24:45-51

While having application for all believers, the primary focus of this passage is on those that hold a position of _____ in the house of God (the _____)

Matthew 24:45

Two kinds of servants contrasted

Good Servant
(Matthew 24:46)

Wicked Servant
(Matthew 24:48-49)

-found doing what the master _____ for him to do

-found doing the _____ opposite of what the master intended for him to do

-prepared for the Master's _____

-thinks the Master will _____ come back any time soon

-dispenses the Master's _____ to the other servants

- _____ the other servants

-dispenses the Master's food at the appointed (_____) times

-uses the Master's resources for _____ indulgence

- _____ at the coming of the Master

- _____ and dread at the coming of the Master

Two kinds of treatment by the Master contrasted

Supreme Generosity
(Matthew 24:47)

Supreme Severity
(Matthew 24:51)

-Elevated and _____ blessed

-Punished with _____ severity

The overabundant generosity and the intense severity of this passage are not at odds with each other-they both flow from the _____ of the Master

The Master's severity in punishment is not inconsistent with His love, it actually shows the _____ and _____ of the love the Master has for His house and those who are His

-By hurting the servants of God and being an overindulgent self-pleaser this wicked servant modeled _____, and rightly receives the punishment that is reserved for _____

The Master's overabundant generosity is consistent with the exceedingly wonderful love displayed in the _____

-By loving the Master and being a servant to the household of God this good servant modeled _____ (Mt. 20:26-28) and is graciously elevated