

The Whole Bible Points to Jesus
John 5:30-47

There is a danger in not viewing all of Scripture as _____ to _____.

A view of Scripture devoid of Christ will always lead to a _____ devoid of _____ for God and others.
John 5:40, 42

A wrong view of _____ will always lead to a wrong view of _____.
John 5:43-44

The entire Bible is _____.

Jesus uses a _____ as He addresses the Pharisees.

“_____ about me” is used 6 times.
John 5:31, 32 (2 times), 36, 37, 39

“_____ about me” is used 1 time.
John 5:46

Jesus presents _____, declaring that all of Scripture is about Him.

The _____ demanded _____ witnesses as proof in order for a verdict to be passed.
Deuteronomy 17:6; 19:15

1. _____ the _____ testifies that all of Scripture is about Jesus.
John 5:30-32, 37

2. _____ the _____ testified that all
of Scripture is about Jesus.
John 5:33-35

3. The very _____ that _____ did declare that all of Scripture is about Him.
John 5:36, 39; 10:25; 14:11
John 12:36-41; Acts 2:25-27

4. Scripture itself affirms that Jesus is the
_____ and _____ of all of Scripture.
John 5:39; 12:36b-41; Acts 2:25-27

5. _____ declared that the Christ is the focus and purpose of the _____.
John 5:44-47
Luke 24:13-16, 25-27

There are at least two main reasons that all of Scripture points to Jesus.

1. God _____ the _____ eternally and wants humanity to know of that love.
John 5:20; 15:9; 17:23, 26
2. The plan of the Father was for the Son to _____ those whom the Father had by _____ given to Him.
John 5:21; 17:1-2, 24; Ephesians 1:3-10

If you refuse to _____ the _____ of Christ in all of Scripture, that Scripture which you _____ will _____ you at the final judgment.
John 5:45