

Jesus Has a Name Above All Names
Psalm 8

Psalm 8 begins and ends with the exact same statement forming an _____.

Psalm 8:1

LORD: _____ which is the _____ name God gave to Himself.

Exodus 3:14

The very name of God, YHWH (the I Am) is more _____ than all the _____ of the heavens.

Psalm 8:1

The original intent of Psalm 8 was to put _____, _____ and _____ in the right order.

That which appears _____ in creation can cause even the foe of God to be _____.

Psalm 8:2

When _____ looked up at the stars at night, he was struck with the _____ of God.

Psalm 8:3

Recognizing the greatness of God through the _____ of the _____ caused David to understand how truly _____ he is.

Psalm 8:4; 65:9-13

_____, the first man, was made a little lower in rank than the _____.

Psalm 8:5

Unlike the angels or anything else in all creation, God made man in _____ own _____.

Psalm 8:5

The image of God in man is seen in the _____ that man should have _____ over God's creation.

Psalm 8:6-8; Genesis 1:26, 28

Because of Adam's sin in the Garden, many things occurred which altered the _____ of man and his relationship with His Creator. Here are several:

The fall of man meant that mankind would desire to be _____ by _____ - _____ ... "I will."

Dominion over creation was lost and _____ into a _____ of or _____ of creation.

Submission to the Creator was perverted by an _____ to live _____ of the Creator.

Instead of living in _____ with the Creator, fallen man became the _____ of the Creator.

Understanding how Psalm 8 is Messianic requires us to look at how it is referenced in the _____.

God is _____ of _____ and sent His Son in human flesh.

Philippians 2:5-8

Jesus Christ, the "I Am", who is _____ creation, in His humanity was made _____ than the angels by taking on human flesh.

Hebrews 2:5-9

In Jesus' death for sinners, He _____ mankind because His death was not for _____ but for man.

Hebrews 2:16

In salvation through Christ, man is not just _____ to his original Adamic state but is _____ above that state by being made a _____ to Christ and sons of God.

Hebrews 2:10-18

Romans 8:16-17, 28-29

In the new heaven and earth, all the _____ of God, including _____ will be made eternally subject to Christ (his _____).

1 Corinthians 15:24-28

Jesus Christ was given a more _____ because of His sacrificial death as the God-man for sinners.

Hebrews 1:1-14

Philippians 2:9-11