

Prayer is the Privilege of Bringing Others to God
Philippians 1:1-11

Give your elders a reason to _____ for you.

Live as a _____ with them in the Gospel.

Philippians 1:3-5; 4:14-18

Be _____ that God will _____ His work in you and those you pray for.

Philippians 1:6; 2:13; 1 Thessalonians 5:23-24
Jude 24-25

_____ your spiritual teachers.

Philippians 1:7

Remain _____ in _____, whether it is yours or theirs.

Philippians 1:7, 29-30

Continue to _____ in the faith.

Philippians 1:7

Live in such a way that your elders will _____ when you're gone rather than giving a _____ of _____ that you're gone.

Philippians 1:8

_____ for _____ should consist of the following items.

1. Pray for the believers to _____ - _____ in _____ toward one another.

Philippians 1:9

2. Pray that their super-abounding love would be _____.

Philippians 1:9

This love is not a blind, acceptance of everyone or everything, but is rooted in a _____

_____ of truth as revealed in the Scriptures.

Romans 10:2

This love is _____, being _____ to the Scriptures: testing "truth" against the Scriptures.

1 John 4:1

3. That they will _____ of what is _____.
Philippians 1:10

Not all good things are _____.

The knowledgeable and discerning believer must be able to _____ those things which are _____.

Matthew 6:26

4. That they may live _____ and _____ as judgment day approaches.

Philippians 1:10

When a believer's love is biblical, they will be able to _____ and then _____ that which will lead to living a pure and blameless life.

This will be _____ on _____ day.

2 Corinthians 5:9-10

5. That they may be filled with the _____ of _____.

Philippians 1:11

This filling is a _____ (comes through Christ) _____ of a biblical super-abounding love for the brothers which results in a pure and blameless life.

When believers have a super-abounding love for others, rooted in biblical truth, they will live pure and blameless lives, being _____ more and more with the _____ of Christ.

James 3:17-18

6. May this super-abounding love for others be to the _____ and _____ of God.

Philippians 1:11