

Live So Honorably as to Point People to Jesus.
Philippians 2:25-30

Epaphroditus was valuable to Paul because he _____ people to _____ by his life.

Philippians 2:25

Epaphroditus was a _____ of Christ to others.

He was a _____ in/because of _____.

Romans 8:29

He was a _____ for Christ in the kingdom.

John 9:4

He was a fellow _____ in the _____
for the souls of men.

Matthew 12:29

He was a _____ of _____ to the Philippian believers.

John 13:15–16

He was a minister to _____ (as well as _____), in his imprisonment.

Matthew 25:36; Luke 4:17–19

Epaphroditus modeled Christ in his _____ for others, even in his _____.

Philippians 2:26–27; Romans 15:1–3

God's mercy is seen in _____ faithful _____ on earth to care for His children and protect His church.

Like Christ, the faithful minister is more concerned for the _____ of the _____ than for his own needs or desires.

Philippians 2:28; Ephesians 5:25

God is merciful, _____ faithful ministers for the care and _____ of the church.

Philippians 2:28; Matthew 7:15

Mark 13:22–23; Acts 20:28-30

Good and godly ministers should be _____ for _____ sake.

A godly minister _____ over a local church which is led by a man wholly _____ to Christ.

Philippians 2:28

Godly men who lead well should be _____ _____, honoring them for serving Christ.

Philippians 2:29

Receive these godly men who live _____,
_____ their lives for you and the gospel.

Philippians 2:30

Epaphroditus did what the church as a whole could not do, by ministering personally to Paul for the sake of Christ.

Philippians 2:30

Jesus loved His _____ and gave godly men to lead
it as His _____; honor them as you would honor
Christ.

Ephesians 4:8-16

We must always remember that the church is made up of _____, who are all saved by Christ alone.

Acts 20:28

While all sinners who are redeemed are saved by a work of God's grace, Jesus Christ saw fit to raise up _____ men whom He _____ to lead His people.

1 Timothy 3:1-7

Only men who preach the _____ of Jesus Christ as declared in God's Word are true _____; all others are
_____.

1 Timothy 4:1–2; Jude 4
