

True Worth is Found in Christ Alone
Philippians 3:7-11

Jesus Christ changes the _____.

_____ is found in three specific areas of a self-righteous person's life.

_____ (national heritage)

Philippians 3:5

_____ (persecutor of the church)

Philippians 3:6; Acts 9:1-2

Philippians 3:6

The true believer finds his _____ in _____ alone.

Paul does not mean that everything about his former life was _____, but that it could be _____ for Christ.

Philippians 3:7-8

Paul uses _____ to describe his attitude toward his self-righteous life before Christ.

Acts 27:19, 38

_____ records the same response to a _____.

Jonah 1:5

When life and death are in the balance, _____ and _____ possessions are worthless.

Philippians 3:8; Luke 9:25; 12:20-21

There is nothing more vital than _____ _____ intimately.

Philippians 3:8

Jesus speaks of knowing Christ as _____

_____.

John 17:3

_____ understood that only _____ could bring eternal reward.

Hebrews 11:25-26

Only through faith in Christ alone will our priorities be _____

_____.

_____ is never achieved by perusing it by _____ means.

Philippians 3:9

True righteousness is found in _____ by _____ in Christ alone.

Philippians 3:9; 2 Corinthians 5:7

Hebrews 10:39-11:1

Knowing Christ will bring about a _____ of _____.

Philippians 3:10-11

Knowing Christ is found in the _____ of His

_____ and all that it encompasses.

_____ : being _____ from death in sin to life in Christ.

Colossians 3:1

The believer now has a _____ to _____ for the sake of Christ who set the example for us.

Philippians 1:29; 1 Peter 4:12-13

The true believer now _____ for the sake of Christ and the _____ of the resurrection to come.

Philippians 3:10-11

No matter what God calls me to, the _____ of the _____ is worth it all.

1 Peter 2:21