

A Sincere Faith in Christ Will Affect Generations to Come
2 Timothy 1:3-7

Young believers must be encouraged from the heart to continue to _____ in their _____.

Paul fondly remembered Timothy in his _____ night and day with _____.

2 Timothy 1:3

_____ was not Timothy's _____, but he took him under his wing and nurtured and cared for him.

Paul remembered how Timothy _____ when they were _____.

2 Timothy 1:4

Paul longed to have Timothy _____ with him.

2 Timothy 4:9, 21

Timothy's love for the Lord reminded Paul of the young minister's _____.

While _____ should be the godly leaders in the home, the impact of godly _____ must never be underestimated.

2 Timothy 1:5

However it happened that Timothy's Jewish mother married a _____, her faith positively impacted her son for the Lord.

Acts 16:1-2

While his _____ father hindered him from being _____, Timothy's heart was devoted to Christ.

Acts 16:3

A godly _____ should _____ young people like Timothy to grow in their faith in God.

Today we seem to have an _____ of young people _____ the faith instilled in them by their parents: this should not be.

If God has _____ you with a mother and/or father who _____ the Lord, two things must be considered.

1. To reject your parent's godly example, is to _____ heap the _____ of God upon yourself.

Romans 2:4-5

2. Following your godly parent's example is not the end; your _____ must be _____ into flame.

2 Timothy 1:6
