

Repairing Damaged Families
Begins with Fathers Trusting God
Isaiah 58

Introduction: The spokesman for God is _____ to speak against _____.

Isaiah 58:1

The sin of a _____ (_____) heart is offensive to God.

_____ of God's _____ does not equal holiness.

_____ do not equal holiness.

Isaiah 58:2

_____ do not equal holiness.

Isaiah 58:2

_____ does not equal holiness.

Isaiah 58:2

_____ and _____ sackcloth does not equal holiness.

Isaiah 58:3

Practically, these people acted _____ than the _____ which is at least acting consistently with their beliefs.

They _____ to know God while they _____ others.

Isaiah 58:3

They claimed to be people of God yet they were _____ and _____ abusive people.

Isaiah 58:4

There's was a _____ but anger ruled their hearts.

Isaiah 58:5

When _____ occurs, it will prove itself with right _____ toward God and others.

The _____ which had _____ the hypocrite will be set free from him.

Isaiah 58:6; Hebrews 12:1

The _____ will become a _____ person who is a blessing to others.

Isaiah 58:6; Leviticus 25:39–40

The hypocrite will become a _____ person who will not withhold his goods from those who are in need especially toward his own _____.

Isaiah 58:7; 1 Timothy 5:8; Galatians 6:9–10

God will surely bless those who are _____ to do His will from an _____ heart.

Only through true repentance will you see clearly that God is your _____ and _____.

Isaiah 58:8

Only when you cease your wicked _____ and _____ of others will God begin to hear your _____.

Isaiah 58:9

Only when you become more _____ for others than _____ will God make your troubles to be filled with hope.

Isaiah 58:10; Isaiah 58:11

God promises that an undivided heart will lead to _____ that live on the _____ of _____ that has now been laid.

You can't change the _____, but you can prepare a new _____ for the _____.

Isaiah 58:12

Many _____ will remember that your commitment to Christ changed the course of your _____ and your _____.

Isaiah 58:12

That generational legacy must be built on a _____ to and _____ of the _____ (Sunday worship).

Isaiah 58:13

God _____ those who _____ Him for _____ to come.

Isaiah 58:14