

Jesus Christ Changes Our Thinking About Life and Death
2 Corinthians 4:7-18

God places the _____ of the _____ of Christ into fragile vessels.

2 Corinthians 4:6

This wonderful gift of salvation reveals the power of God and the _____ and _____ of man.

2 Corinthians 4:7

_____ and _____ for Jesus is a testimony of the life of Jesus in the believer.

2 Corinthians 4:8–10

Paul's suffering accomplished a greater good in the lives of those who _____ his _____.

2 Corinthians 4:11–12

As a New Covenant apostle, Paul _____ with the same _____ as Old Covenant prophets.

Paul _____ what and how he did, based on his _____ in Jesus Christ.

2 Corinthians 4:13; Psalm 116:10

Paul's faith was in the _____ of Christ and His _____.

2 Corinthians 4:14; 2 Corinthians 1:21–22; 5:5

As a _____ minister of Christ, Paul was willing to _____ so that more and more people would be saved to the glory of God.

2 Corinthians 4:15; 2 Corinthians 1:3–4; 2:14

Faith in Christ _____ suffering.

Faith in Christ moves the focus from the _____ to the _____ of Christ in the heart.

2 Corinthians 4:16; Romans 8:28-30

A _____ puts suffering in its place.

2 Corinthians 4:17; Romans 8:18

Faith in Christ _____ the _____.

2 Corinthians 4:18

Earthly suffering is never the _____ for the believer.

2 Corinthians 4:18; 5:8; 1 Peter 1:6–7

_____ is the final end for the believer because of the great _____ put into us, which is Jesus Christ; for this we long.

2 Corinthians 4:18; Psalm 42:1–2