

True Courage Comes from Wanting to Please God
2 Corinthians 5:1-8

The _____ Christian life is built on the reality of a new _____ in Heaven (vv. 1-5).

While the Apostle Paul was ready to face _____, he hoped for the _____ of Christ.
2 Corinthians 5:1

Whether we _____ or Jesus _____, the Christian lives in the reality of heaven.
2 Corinthians 5:1

Our _____ will be destroyed.
2 Corinthians 4:7

God has prepared a _____ for us in His _____.
John 14:2-3

The _____ of _____ proved that there is another home for the believer.
Hebrews 9:11

The true Christian has a holy _____ (_____) with this life which produces a longing for heaven.
2 Corinthians 5:2; 1 Corinthians 15:19

The true Christian must remember that he is _____ in the _____ of Christ.
2 Corinthians 5:3

The true Christian, being driven by the reality of _____, groans under its weight, longing for being eternally clothed with Christ's righteousness.
2 Corinthians 5:4; 1 Corinthians 15:54

The true Christian is made righteous by _____, not by his _____.

It is _____ who prepares us for _____.
2 Corinthians 5:5; Titus 3:4-5

God prepares us for heaven by giving us the _____.
2 Corinthians 5:5; Ephesians 1:13-14

Because the Spirit is the _____ of heaven for the believer, we can face eternity with _____.
2 Corinthians 5:6, 8

The courageous Christian walks by _____ in the _____ of God (vv. 6-8).

The _____ of the believer in this life gives us a holy _____ for heaven.
2 Corinthians 5:6

The only way to have a holy longing for heaven is to walk by _____ and not by _____.
2 Corinthians 5:7; 4:17-18

Only when we face eternity with _____ (_____) will we prefer eternity over this life.
2 Corinthians 5:8