

What you Love is what you Live for
2 Corinthians 6:1-13

Paul loved the Corinthians and this flowed out of his love for _____

2 Corinthians 5:14-15
2 Corinthians 6:11

1. Ministers (as God's agents of reconciliation-6:1a) are genuinely _____ for the church

2 Corinthians 5:20
2 Corinthians 6:1

-This concern centers around the fear that those listening may be _____ only

2 Corinthians 6:1

2. This concern which flows from love leads to the proclamation of gospel _____ and gospel _____

2 Corinthians 6:2

3. Godly ministers should strive to _____ in such a way as to not hinder the gospel

2 Corinthians 6:3

-2 Corinthians 6:4-10 shows us 3 truths about how the minister (and _____) ought to live

- _____ hardships

-Manifest spiritual _____ by the power of God

-Not a slave to _____

4. The church should have an overflowing heart of love ( _____ + _____ ) for those that God has given to them to proclaim the gospel of reconciliation

2 Corinthians 6:12-13
