

Turning from Sin to God Comforts Those Who Love You
2 Corinthians 7:2-7

Erring Christians need to come to their _____ and stop _____ to lies.

Instead of _____ your pastors who love you, open your heart wide to them.

2 Corinthians 7:2

Paul is continuing his previous thought about those who are _____ the _____ and their false message.

The previous comments were addressed to the _____ body.

2 Corinthians 6:12-13

Beginning with 7:2, Paul is addressing those who have _____ to his previous letter (the actual 2 Corinthians).

2 Corinthians 7:8

Don't believe everything you hear about your _____: look at their _____ and the way they carefully _____ you.

2 Corinthians 7:2

Paul responds to his critics by presenting three _____ his (and Timothy's) ministry.

1. We _____ no one (hurt or injure)
2. We _____ no one (false doctrine)
3. We have taken advantage of no one (_____ or _____)

Paul declares that their _____ and _____ purity validates their ministry.

Godly pastors love their "children" and would willingly _____ and _____ with them like any loving parent would.

2 Corinthians 7:3

Paul seems to be referencing the _____ and _____ of Christ instead of simply life together in the church.

As a godly pastor, Paul is stressing again his concern for their _____ with Christ, rather than just that they function right as a church.

2 Corinthians 6:2-3

Sometimes godly pastors must be bold because of their _____ in the _____ work in leading erring Christians to turn from sin to God.

2 Corinthians 7:4; 2 Corinthians 6:16-18

Turning from sin to God gives a minister reason to be _____ of his "_____".

Turning from sin to God brings _____ to ministers who _____ over the sin of their "children".

The pain of being bold toward their "children" turns from _____ to _____ when sinners turn from their sin to God.

_____ often requires _____ that most people are not aware of.

Paul does not hide the fact that his ministry was filled with trouble from _____ and _____.

2 Corinthians 7:5

Some of the battles come from _____.

2 Corinthians 11:23-27

Some of the battles come from within the _____ and _____.

2 Corinthians 2:12-13; 11:28

God often sends the right _____ into the minister's life at just the right _____.

2 Corinthians 7:6

Paul, the _____ of _____, was a man in need of comfort.

2 Corinthians 1:3-4

When Christians respond in obedience to God's Word and God's minister, it becomes a source of _____ and _____.

2 Corinthians 7:7

A genuine _____ for the godly pastor gives him reason to _____ even though the hardships may continue.

2 Corinthians 7:7