

Turning from Sin to God Encourages Those Who Love You
2 Corinthians 7:13-16

Paul gives us insight into the things that _____ and _____ godly ministers.

Paul recognized that his comfort came from God, as the Corinthian believers _____ from the _____ and stood with Paul.

2 Corinthians 7:12-13

Paul rejoiced in the way the Corinthian believers _____ and _____ for his fellow servant, Titus.

Paul and Timothy _____ with Titus as he _____ on behalf of the Corinthian believers.

2 Corinthians 7:13; 3 John 3-4

Titus, _____ of what he might find in the church at Corinth, was instead _____ by the love and support he received from them.

2 Corinthians 7:13

A godly pastor ought to be able to _____ about the faith and _____ of those he ministers to.

Paul sought to _____ Titus by boasting on behalf of the Corinthian believers, knowing that they would _____ properly in obedience to God, and he was right.

2 Corinthians 7:14

Paul knew that the Corinthians would respond in faith because he had _____ the truth to them, laying the biblical _____ for their obedience.

2 Corinthians 7:14

Believers must always remember that godly ministers _____ as they _____ the obedience of those they serve.

Titus grew in his _____ for the Corinthian believers as they responded in _____ to Paul's 2nd (tearful) letter.

2 Corinthians 7:15; Hebrews 13:17

Every godly minister who declares God's Word must be _____ with the _____ due their calling.

In the case of the Corinthian believers having listened to _____ and _____, they demonstrated a proper fear before the one who had loved them and taught them.

2 Corinthians 7:15

1 Thessalonians 5:12-13

Proper honor also includes caring for the _____ and _____ of those whom God places over you.

1 Timothy 5:17-18

Godly ministers should rejoice as they express their _____ in the believer's _____ to obeying God.

2 Corinthians 7:16