

Generous Giving Flows From the Grace of Christ
2 Corinthians 8:8-11

Paul's _____ for the Corinthians to give does not take away their _____ to give.

Paul, using his _____ authority, does not hesitate to give commands about giving even though the _____ hasn't directly commanded it.

2 Corinthians 8:8; 1 Corinthians 7:10, 12

As motivation for obeying, Paul wants them to consider the _____ giving of the _____ churches.

2 Corinthians 8:8

The purpose of the command to obey was to prove the _____ of their love for others.

2 Corinthians 8:8

The _____ of Christ must be the ultimate motivation for free and generous giving.

The Corinthian Christians know intimately the _____ of Christ in their _____.

2 Corinthians 8:9

Jesus Christ was rich because He was _____ and was with _____.

2 Corinthians 8:9; John 1:1, 14

Jesus Christ _____ gave up His riches in order to become _____ for unworthy sinners.

2 Corinthians 8:9; Luke 2:6-7

Because of the poverty of Christ, believers become _____ being declared the _____ of God.

2 Corinthians 8:9; John 1:12-13

Because of the _____ of Christ and the _____ of other believers, Christians must be generous givers.

The Corinthian Christians have _____ from Christ's grace and they will _____ from being generous givers.

2 Corinthians 8:10; Proverbs 19:17

1 Timothy 6:17-19

Paul commanded the Corinthian Christians to remember their _____ which flowed from a true heart _____ to help suffering brothers and sisters.

2 Corinthians 8:10; 9:1-2

Paul commanded the Corinthian believers to make sure that their _____ to give generously was brought to _____.

_____ must be matched with _____ if giving was going to have any effect.

2 Corinthians 8:11; James 2:14-17

Paul doesn't command the Corinthian believers to give like the Macedonians (out of their _____), but to give out of what they have _____.

2 Corinthians 8:11