

Lead by Example: Be Generous
2 Corinthians 9:1-5

God _____ by _____ by giving His Son.
John 3:16; 1 John 4:9

Like the Corinthian believers, may we have a good _____ of _____ for others.

Paul is _____ his _____ from the previous section.
2 Corinthians 8:24

Even though the topic of giving has already been stated, Paul sees the need to continue to challenge these believers to _____ their _____.
2 Corinthians 9:1

Because the _____ to the _____ is so important to the Corinthians, they need to be reminded of it again.
2 Corinthians 9:1

It's like the _____; even though true believers know it, they need to be _____ of its priority in their lives.
2 Corinthians 9:13; Philippians 1:27

Believers must lead by example, knowing that others _____ and _____ the local church are taking notice.
2 Corinthians 9:2

A _____ for living, flowing from their _____,
will stir others up in their faith.
2 Corinthians 9:2

Godly ministers have the right to expect believers to _____ and _____ honorably.

A reminder from godly ministers must be _____ with _____.
2 Corinthians 8:8; 9:3

Believers must avoid _____ in their living and their giving so that others are not _____ for confidently expecting better of them.
2 Corinthians 9:4

_____ in the believer's life should be _____ since it indicates a failure to follow through on commitments.
2 Corinthians 9:4

Even though Paul confidently arranged for the giving to take place, his expectation was that it would be a _____ gift, not the result of being given _____.

It is right for godly ministers to be confident in the
_____ of the believers
2 Corinthians 9:5

Godly ministers must not _____ the believers
into giving, but must _____ them to do the right thing.
2 Corinthians 9:5

Through the believer's _____ and eager
_____, the gift will be a blessing in their lives, not grudgingly given.
2 Corinthians 9:5