

Christians are Called to be Discerning
2 Corinthians 11:7-15

Christians in the local church should notice their pastor's _____ for them.

Paul _____ to ask for or receive money from the Corinthian Christians because of their support of the false apostles in the church.

2 Corinthians 11:7

Paul was not teaching against elders being _____ for their _____.

2 Corinthians 11:8; 1 Corinthians 9:3-15

Paul _____ the Corinthian believers for their _____, allowing other churches to support him in his ministry to the Corinthian churches.

2 Corinthians 11:9

The Corinthians were _____ yet paid no _____ to his need.

When in Corinth and in need, other churches showed more _____ than these _____ people.

Knowing the _____ of the Corinthian believers, Paul _____ to take nothing from them even if they offered.

2 Corinthians 11:10

Paul was aware of the Corinthian's wrong view of _____ and _____ pastors, and he refused to ask for money because he loved them more than self.

Paul demonstrated a love for _____ and a love for _____.

2 Corinthians 11:11

Paul is so resolute in his love for them that he calls on _____ as his _____.

2 Corinthians 11:11

Instead of holding celebrity pastors in high regard, Christians should notice the _____ of their godly pastors.

Loving God and loving others means _____ to the self-seeking false apostles.

2 Corinthians 11:12

Though these antagonists _____, they prove by their _____ that they love self, more than God or others.

2 Corinthians 11:13

Christians must be discerning because even _____ knows the _____ and does "good" things.

2 Corinthians 11:14

The antagonist's (false apostle's) love of self and wealth may sound _____ but will lead to their _____.

2 Corinthians 11:15
