

God is Great, Even When We are Weak
2 Corinthians 11:16-33

Paul _____ his _____ in ways contrary to the false apostles.

Christians must remember that the Church, including the _____, belongs to Christ.

Ephesians 1:22-23

Christians must remember that Christ, not _____ or _____, causes the church to grow.

1 Corinthians 3:6-7

Christians must remember that it was Christ who, as a _____, gave _____ to lead His church.

Ephesians 4:11-12

When division occurs, Christians must answer the question “Who _____ for my _____?”

Paul presents himself as a fool in an attempt to _____ the _____ false apostles.

2 Corinthians 11:16

Paul acknowledges that _____ never spoke as in a _____ way, but he will in order to refute the fools in the Corinthian church.

2 Corinthians 11:17; 2 Corinthians 11:1

Paul attempts to answer the _____ according to his _____ as was his practice with the Corinthians.

Proverbs 26:5; 2 Corinthians 11:18

1 Corinthians 4:10-13

Paul attempts to confront the Corinthians about their _____ concerning the false apostles.

The _____ of the Corinthian believers caused them to _____ fools who enslave them.

2 Corinthians 11:19-20

Paul, who models _____, admitted that he is _____ than the fools in his treatment of the Corinthian believers.

2 Corinthians 11:21; 2 Corinthians 10:10

When division occurs, Christians must answer the question “Who has demonstrated _____ for Christ?”

Paul begins by boasting of his _____ but quickly acknowledges this form of “foolish” speaking.

2 Corinthians 11:21-23; Philippians 3:2-7

Paul’s real boast is in the privilege of _____ and _____ for Christ.

2 Corinthians 11:23-27; 2 Corinthians 6:3-10

Paul exemplifies the heart of a true pastor, except that he bore the weight of _____.

2 Corinthians 11:28-29

When division occurs, Christians must ask the question “Does the one I’m following reveal a _____ that drives him to _____ on Christ?”

As a godly pastor, Paul didn’t boast in his _____ or _____, but in those things that revealed how weak he was.

2 Corinthians 11:30-31

It is not rules and regulations that reveal one’s godliness but a joyful _____ in _____ that reveals the power of Christ.

2 Corinthians 12:9

Even as he began his apostleship, Paul testifies to his human weakness by showing that when God’s people _____, the gospel can go forward.

2 Corinthians 11:32-33; Acts 9:22-25
