

Become a Man Who is Eager to Repent.
Psalm 51

The depth of your _____ is revealed in your response to being _____ about your sin: defensiveness or brokenness.

Acknowledge your sin when confronted without _____ the _____.
2 Samuel 12:7-15; 1 John 1:8, 10

Seek God's forgiveness and receive His _____ and _____.
Psalm 51:1-3

_____ the _____ of your sin to God.

Every sin committed is an _____ to the _____ of God.
Psalm 51:4

God's _____ of my sin is always right.
Psalm 51:4

Humbly acknowledge, "I am the _____ of God's holy character."
Psalm 51:5

The only way to have a relationship with God is to be made _____ through _____.
Psalm 51:7; Isaiah 1:18

God's mercy _____ us under the _____ of our sin.
Psalm 51:8-9

Repent by _____ from sin to God and doing the following:

1. Being cleansed from sin and made right with God through _____ in _____.
Psalm 51:10; Acts 26:13-18

2. Make _____ with _____ the highest priority.
Psalm 51:11

Be consistent in _____ and prayer.
1 John 2:3-6

Be consistent in your _____.
Psalm 84:4; Hebrews 10:24-25

Keep _____ in _____ sin to God.
Proverbs 28:13

3. Make sure that your joy is not dependent upon _____ but upon God's work of _____ in your life.
Psalm 51:12

The restored person _____ others how to be _____ to God.
Psalm 51:13-15

Sinners cannot _____ God's _____.
Psalm 51:16; Romans 3:10-12

Only when God has _____ you over sin, can you be _____ to Him.
Psalm 51:17; James 4:10; 1 Peter 5:5-6

A proper response to being confronted about sin brings _____ and God's _____ on your life.
Psalm 51:18-19; 2 Chronicles 7:14