

The Weakness of Christ is a Display of God's Power
2 Corinthians 13:1-4

There is a biblical way to _____ a _____ against someone.

Paul had admonished the Corinthians about those making _____ against him.
2 Corinthians 10:10

Paul now declares that when he comes, he will use the _____ for making his accusations against his accusers.
2 Corinthians 13:1

Paul draws from the Old Testament instruction on _____ an _____.
Deuteronomy 19:15-21

Paul also brings _____ on church discipline to light.
Matthew 18:16

Paul reminded Timothy that this principle is especially true when bringing an _____ against an _____.
1 Timothy 5:19

Sin and hardness of heart prevent people from _____ to Christ's warning to them, leading to their judgment.

Up to this point Paul has been very _____ and _____ toward those making the accusations against him.
2 Corinthians 13:2

Failure respond humbly to God's _____ will bring God's _____ on them through Paul.
2 Corinthians 1:23; 13:2

If God did not spare his _____, how will He spare those who persist in their gossip, slander and immorality?
2 Corinthians 12:20-21; Romans 8:32

What appears to be _____ may actually be the veiled _____ of God.

While Paul admitted to weakness, the discerning believer saw the _____ of _____ at work in and through Paul.
2 Corinthians 13:3; 2 Corinthians 12:19

Christ's weakness became the means to the _____ of the _____ of God.
2 Corinthians 13:4; 2 Corinthians 8:9
Philippians 2:7-11

In a prefiguring way, Paul's return foreshadows _____ in power to judge the lost and rebellious.

The power of Christ will be revealed fully in His _____.
2 Corinthians 13:4; 1 Peter 4:4-5

Paul's patience with his accusers may appear like _____, but when he comes again to Corinth, he will _____ the proud gossipers and slanderers.
2 Corinthians 13:4

The church is _____ church and He desires a _____ church.

_____ is God's way of ensuring that His church is healthy and pure.

Church discipline is no little matter, but is a matter of eternal _____ or _____.
Mt 18:17-20

Salvation is a matter of _____ not _____.
Acts 24:24-25